applicant anniave the fight to be the credit limit of the account. Each applicant may be liable for amounts extended under the plan to any joint applicant. The applicant, if married, may apply for a separate account. Ohio Residents: The Ohio laws against discrimination require that all creditors make credit equally available to all creditworthy customers, and that credit reporting agencies maintain separate credit histories on each individual upon request. The Ohio Civil Rights Commission administers compliance with this law.

New York and Vermont Residents: By signing this application, you (applicant and co-applicant) authorize 5Star Bank to obtain your credit reports at any time for any legitimate purpose associated with the account or your application or request for an account, including but not limited to reviewing, modifying, updating, renewing, or extending credit, or collecting your account. Upon your request, you will be informed whether or not a consumer credit report was ordered, and if it was, you will be given the name and address of the consumer reporting agency that furnished the report. New York Residents: You may contact the New York State Banking Department at 1-800-522-3330 to obtain a comparative listing of credit card rates, fees and grace periods. Wisconsin Residents: Wisconsin law provides that no provision of an agreement, unilateral statement or court decree applying to marital property will adversely affect a creditor's interest unless the creditor, prior to the time credit is granted, is furnished a copy of the agreement, statement or decree or has actual knowledge of the adverse provision when the obligation to the creditor is incurred. Kentucky, Michigan, Ohio and Tennessee Residents:

After approval and use of the account, if the applicant's 5Star Bank credit card account balance exceeds the applicant's credit limit for the account, 5Star Bank will not charge the applicant an over-the-credit-limit fee.
